Vehicles Hitting Plastic Wrap Stretch Across Idaho Road

SHOSHONE COUNTY - Authorities in northern Idaho are looking for whoever is stretching plastic wrap across the freeway.

The Shoshone County Sheriff's Office says the people are stretching saran wrap across I-90 at the Hill Top Overpass and Shiplett Overpass and it's being hit by vehicle traveling on the road.

Police say one vehicle received extensive damage to it's windshield.

Idaho Department of Transportation caught the suspects in the act on Monday night, but they got away in a car before police arrived. The suspects were wearing dark clothing and packing flashlights.

Police say they are worried that the plastic wrap is a possible prank, but if it continues someone on a motorcycle could hit it and be seriously injured or killed. Extra patrols will take place in the meantime.

If you have any information on who may be doing this or see something suspicious call police.
